RMIT University Student Union - CONSTITUTION

1. ENABLING CLAUSE

- 1.1. There shall be an association called the “RMIT University Student Union” recognised by RMIT University, herein referred to as the “Student Union”.

2. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- 2.1. The Aims and Objectives of the Student Union shall be:
 - 2.1.1. To represent and safeguard members of the Student Union in matters affecting their interests and rights.
 - 2.1.2. To advance the education, welfare, social life and cultural activities of members.
 - 2.1.3. To promote, encourage and co-ordinate the various activities of the Student Union and affiliated bodies.
 - 2.1.4. To afford a recognised means of communication between the members of the Student Union, the RMIT Administration and other authorities and organisations.
 - 2.1.5. To ensure that the Student Union’s practices, policies and procedure reflect the principles of equal opportunity and affirmative action.
 - 2.1.6. To endeavour to achieve changes to the University’s structure, policies and procedures so that all of these encompass the principles of equal opportunity and affirmative action.
 - 2.1.7. To establish and maintain contact with other organisations having aims similar in whole or in part to these aims and to co-operate with such organisations in pursuing these aims.
 - 2.1.8. To facilitate the effective co-ordination of student representation on all University bodies, including student representation on portfolio/College/School Board and Student Staff Consultative Committees.
 - 2.1.9. To do such other things as are conducive or incidental to the attainment of the above objects.

RMIT University Student Union - CONSTITUTION

- 2.2. The Student Union acknowledges the RMIT Vietnam Student Council as the representative body of enrolled students of RMIT International University Vietnam.

3. MEMBERSHIP

- 3.1. The members of the Student Union are all students enrolled in a course of study prescribed by the RMIT Council, or its subsidiaries.
- 3.2. All students of RMIT may, after having given reasonable notice, inspect any or all of the open records of the Student Union.
- 3.3. All students of RMIT are entitled to reasonable use of the services and facilities of the Student Union and to take advantage of the representation provided by the Student Union.
- 3.4. Honorary membership of the Student Union shall be conferred upon all persons employed by the Student Union on a non-casual basis for the period of their employment. Honorary members shall not be eligible to stand for election to any position within the Student Union but may be appointed as Returning Officer.
- 3.4.1. Any student elected to any position within the Student Union, and for which they receive an honorarium, shall not be deemed to be an employee of the Student Union, and shall be deemed to have all the rights and privileges of a student of the University.
- 3.5. Any student elected to any position within the Student Union shall be deemed to be a financial member of the Student Union for the duration they hold that position and shall be deemed to have all the rights and privileges of a student of the University.
- 3.6. The Student Union Council may raise a fee for financial membership of the Student Union. A member of the Student Union may elect to become a financial member of the Student Union by paying the relevant fee. Financial members shall be entitled to such benefits as are specified in this Constitution and are determined by the Student Union Council.
- 3.7. A person who qualifies for membership shall retain membership status until 11.2.9. All elections shall be by secret ballot.

11.2.10. Postal Voting facilities shall be made available to any person eligible to vote who is unable to attend a polling booth, in accordance with the Student Union Regulations.

11.2.11. Ballot boxes shall be open for at least:

11.2.11.1. Five (5) consecutive academic days for Annual Elections on all major campuses and sites of the University at times stipulated in the Student Union Regulations, allowing maximum access to all students. The Election need not be held simultaneously on all campuses and sites provided:

11.2.11.1.1. The poll is declared two (2) days after the election by posting on the Official Notice Boards.

11.2.11.1.2. No declaration is made in respect to any contested position until all polling has ceased.

11.2.11.2. Three (3) consecutive academic days for By-elections on all major campuses of the University at times stipulated in the Student Union Regulations, allowing maximum access to all students. But if the election only involves one campus or site there is no need to have polling booths at any other campus.

11.2.11.3. No votes can be counted until all voting ceases.

11.2.12. Any claim of a breach of the Election Regulations must be presented to the Returning Officer within five (5) days of the declaration of the poll, must be in writing and must be supported by at least two (2) members of the Student Union.

11.2.13. Upon receipt of an appeal the Returning Officer may dismiss the matter, uphold the appeal or convene an emergency meeting of the SUC Appeals Committee to hear the appeal.

RMIT University Student Union - CONSTITUTION

11.2.14. No decision on an appeal, once made, may be subsequently overturned.

11.2.15. The Returning Officer shall declare the poll as soon as is practicable, after the close of the ballot by posting the results on the Official Notice Boards.

11.3. Vacancy

11.3.1. There shall be a vacancy on the SUC when:
